Families and the Gospel

Mt. 28:16-20

In today's gospel Jesus commands, "Teach them to carry out everything I have commanded you." This command is meant for every Christian. In light of the command, parenting is not only the most difficult task a person can take on, it is also one of the most apostolic and missionary tasks. Jesus commands all parents to teach their children "all that I have commanded you."

Liturgical Reflections...

Today the Church commemorates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. It is our custom to begin and end prayer in the name of the Trinity. The great doxology at Mass celebrates the triune being of God: Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever. Amen. Today make the sign of the cross slowly and reflect on the words you speak. May God, our Creator, Redeemer, and Sanctifier, watch over us, protect us, and lead us through this life to our home in heaven.
